So Say We All.

Speaking of tombstone literature, we have some in our own cemetery which reads a little queer. On one of the stones which marks a grave not so very old is the following:

Born
July —, 184—,
Died
September —, 187—.
May He Rest in Peace
From His Wife."

Some Sweet Day.

Will there ever come a time when the city authorities will prohibit the tearing up of the sidewalks at the ends of the St. Clair street bridge at the beginning of bad weather, to be left in an almost impassible condition all winter, or then being obstructed with unsightly rubbish in the early spring to remain so until late in the fall?

Or will they ever be wise enough to prohibit a contractor from tearing up a street before he has the material on the ground to reconstruct it, and not do a little here, go off and leave it until he does a little there, and in the end have everything torn up he touches.

Oh! if there is such a glorious day in store for us good Lord let it come soon! Oh! let it come soon!

Don't Forget.

The Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival, August 8 to 12, is the most liberal organization the State has ever seen in its premiums for beef cattle. Sixteen classes are provided for and over $1,000 given away to the Shorthorn breed. This is an average of nearly $100 to each class, and the classes provided permit all ages and both sexes to compete.

Another Instance.

A youth employed by Mr. J. N. Camden, who lives within two miles of Versailles, was driving a team with a load of hay, and concluded he wanted to smoke. He accordingly lighted a match and touched off his cigarette. The stump of the match fell among the hay and the whole load was burned up, the horses ran away, the wagon was broken to pieces, the horses ruined, and the cigarette fiend had a close call for his life.

Dairy Cattle.

The dairy cattle show at the Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival is open to the Jersey, Holstein-Friesian, Ayrshire and Guernsey, and the big premiums offered promise such competition as was never before seen in Kentucky. The classes take in every age from heifer under one year old and up, and includes as well premiums for herds besides the get of one bull and produce of one cow. They are catalogued for exhibition the third and fourth days, August 10 and 11.

Horse Department.

For harness, saddle and combined horses, the premiums offered by the Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival aggregate an enormous sum, averaging as they do $100 or more for each different class given. There are numerous classes provided in each division and no man need leave his horse at home, as every age and sex has been provided for. August 8 to 12 is the date of the fair and all railroads will sell reduced rates.

GRANDMA HAD CONSUMPTION

and I am afraid I have inherited it. I do not feel well; I have a cough; my lungs are sore; am losing flesh. What shall I do?

Your doctor says take care of yourself and take plain cod-liver oil, but you can't take it. Only the strong, healthy person can take it, and they can't take it long. It is so rich it upsets the stomach. But you can take

SCOTT'S EMULSION

It is very palatable and easily digested. If you will take plenty of fresh air, and exercise, and SCOTT'S EMULSION steadily, there is very little doubt about your recovery.

There are hypophosphites in it; they give strength and tone up the nervous system while the cod-liver oil feeds and nourishes.

Racing.

Running, trotting, pacing and mule races are slated as part of the gigantic exhibition at the Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival, August 8 to 12. There are nine races for trotters and pacers and seven for the flyers, besides a novelty in the shape of a mule race. Two or more races will be contested each day, and the purses range from $200 to $300.

Owenton Fair.

The good people of Owen county will have their annual fair at Owenton this year, commencing Wednesday, September 27, and continuing until Saturday, September 30, inclusive. This will be an old fashioned fair and a thoroughly enjoyable occasion. For particulars write to Sam F. Boarne, Esq., Secretary, a Owenton.

Plot Foiled.

Nine desperate men, who had been sent to the penitentiary for long terms or for life, had plotted to murder the guards and escape from the shoe factory on Monday at noon.

A short time before the hour for the revolt Col. Eph Lillard, Warden of the Prison, who had been forewarned of the plot, called the ring leaders out, one by one, informed them of the discovery of the plot, disarmed them of all knives, bludgeons, &c., concealed upon their persons, and had them locked in separate dungeons.

There are some 200 men employed in the shoe shop, which is outside the walls, and is surrounded by a stockade, and the plan would, if successful, have liberated all these men, after killing the five guards and the employees of the shoe company.

These plots are arranged periodically, but generally fail because some of the gang get rattled and give the scheme away in the nick of time.

Mules.

At the Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival, August 1 to 12, the management has not forgotten to provide for that most useful animal—the mule. They will be exhibited on the first day, and the premium takers will be well repaid for making the exhibit. Get a catalogue from E. W. Shanklin, Lexington, Ky., and read the host of good things in all departments.

Paralyzed.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Mary Watkins, widow of the late Lee Watkins, Esq., of this city, was stricken with paralysis at the home of her sister, Mrs. B. T. Quinn, in Georgetown, last week. Being a very large woman, it renders her condition peculiarly pitiable, as it will be so hard to move her about as ought to be done. But little hope is expressed of any improvement in her condition owing to her age.

Stole His Wheat.

By an article in the Georgetown Times, we learn that thieves broke into the barn of Mr. Clay H. Hatchitt, at Newtown, on Saturday night, and stole seven sacks of wheat which had just been threshed out that day. The thieves were bold enough to carry it in a wagon to Lexington and sell it.

More Kentuckians Appointed.

Adjutant Arthur G. Sharpley, Third Kentucky Volunteers, and Lieut. Wm. O. Reed, First Kentucky Volunteers have been appointed Captain and First Lieutenant respectively in one of the new regiments now in process of organization to go to the Philippines.

EXCURSION RATES ON ALL RAILROADS.

As it Should be.

The Frankfort & Cincinnati Railway has had water troughs put in their stock pens for the comfort of stock consigned to that road for shipment. This is just as it should be, and is a thing we have often wondered was not done by all the railroads long ago.

The Kingfisher Club.

On Monday week, July 31, Messrs. Geo. L. Payne, Frank Cannon and Frank G. Stagg, members of the King Fisher Club, and four initiates (Jack W. Milam, Jim Stone, Sid. Bedford and Noble Lindsey), will hie themselves away to the lake shore to enjoy their annual fishing spree.

Two members of the Club from this city (Messrs. Sam Smith and Dock Farr) were compelled to forego the trip.

Here's wishing the gang a glorious time anyway.

Sad Suicide.

We regret exceedingly to learn that Mrs. Kate Clark, wife of Mr. Vernon L. Clark, of Phoenix, Ariz., committed suicide by shooting herself, on Thursday, at the home of her brother-in-law, in Clark county. Mrs. Clark was well known and loved here, where she came as a bride, when her husband was general manager of the Kentucky Midland Railway. Her health had been poor for a long time, and her mind had become unbalanced.

Sincere sympathy is extended her young husband in his bereavement.

Two More Kentucky Captains.

Two more Kentuckians have been made happy. Lieut. M. B. Wilhoit, of Nicholasville, Fourth Kentucky Volunteers, and Capt. Jas. L. Burchfield, of Madisonville, Third Kentucky Volunteers, have been appointed Captains in the new regiments now being raised.
